

Mild PERI-PERI A little warmer perfect for those looking

Jemon & Herb PERI-PERI For beginners or those who like lots of flavour, but not too much heat.

Because all of our chickens are marinated (including our chicken strips), you may detect some spice, even if you go for 'plain'

All Nando's chickens are marinated for 24 hours in our secret sauce until the flavour goes right through to the bone. They're then flame-grilled and basted in your choice of Nando's

PERI-PERI SAUCE The result is ultimate PERifection!

Many centuries ago

our Portuguese forefathers set sail for new lands. After months on the high seas they were called ashore by the winds of East Africa. Here they were introduced to the fiery little African Bird's Eve Chilli which we now know as PERI-PERI A spice like no other, it put fire in their bellies and ignited passion in their hearts! To this chilli they added a handfu of herbs, a squeeze of fresh lemon and a touch of garlic Their love for life, friends, fur and good food had created the first Gosto Delicioso (great taste) of PERi-PERi sauce

Today our own recipe

remains a closely-quarded

secret. But what's no secret is that the traditions of hospitality, friendship and simple family pleasures that our forefathers lived by are ones that we still happily share! They are after all, the inspiration for our restaurants

Bom Proveito!

...we reckon ours would look like this!

Our impression is just a bit of fur but at Nando's real art is taken very seriously. We commission original works (check them out on the walls around you) from South African artists.

With amazing work by everyone from bushmen on community farms to renowned Johannesburg painters, our collection of more than 3,000 works is distinctly diverse.

We also helped an independent studio set up a subsidised diploma course for aspiring artists. Successful students work is considered for the Nando's collection. The artists achieve recognition and you have something great to look at while you're eating!
